

Professional Development: Advanced Suturing

Attend 1 class

Class Offered: December 3, 5, and 10, 2024

Time: 8:30 - 11:30 AM or 1:00 - 4:00 PM

Location: USA Health Simulation Building
5741 USA Dr. N.,  Room 211
Mobile, AL 36688

Cost: $250

Target audience: Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants, Physicians, and other Healthcare Workers who perform suturing and have basic suturing knowledge

Purpose: Demonstrate safe, competent, and independent performance of the following skills: laceration repair with simple interrupted suture, incision and drainage, running suture, horizontal mattress stitch, vertical mattress stitch, acute corner closure, nail hematoma release, and partial nail removal.

Benefits: Strengthen your suturing skills and techniques. Learn and practice advanced suturing techniques.

A Certificate of Completion will be awarded at the completion of the class and submission of an evaluation. [ABNP1543 expires 2-16-27]

Instructor: USA Simulation Faculty/Staff

Contact for questions: Eleanor Odom, MSN, RN, CNL
eleanorodom@southalabama.edu